

OVERVIEW

- Friday Harbor House, perched atop a bluff on beautiful San Juan Island, overlooks the harbor.
- Each of the 23 elegantly appointed guest rooms and suites have their own fireplace and sitting area, as well as an oversized-jetted bathtub.
- Friday Harbor House's Harbor View Restaurant features an array of exquisite dishes prepared from fresh, locally caught seafood, as well as produce and other products from the San Juan Islands.
- The inn is owned by Lang and Anne Simons and is managed by Seattle-based Columbia Hospitality.

LOCATION

- Accessible via a serene ferry ride through the San Juan Islands or a quick float plane trip from Seattle
- A block and a half from the Washington state ferry terminal and marina
- The inn's central island location provides easy access to an array of activities, including whale watching, antique shopping, hiking, biking, kayaking, sailing, Scuba diving, golf and tennis.

IN-ROOM AMENITIES

- Floor-to-ceiling windows with spectacular views
- European queen bed
- Many rooms have private decks
- Waffle-weave bathrobes
- Remote-controlled television and VCR
- In-room coffee and coffee maker
- Refrigerator
- Iron and ironing board

DINING

The executive chef uses fish, mussels, oysters, cheeses, meats and produce primarily from the San Juan Islands. Dinner is served seven nights a week during the summer and Thursdays through Mondays during the quiet season. In addition to regular nightly dinners, the chef teams up with regional wineries and hosts four- or five-course Wine Dinners. The Inn's complimentary gourmet "signature" breakfast is served daily.

MEETING FACILITIES

- A 1,017-square-foot, fully equipped meeting and event facility accommodates groups of up to 100 guests.
- 880-square-foot Harbor View Dining Room overlooking the San Juan Channel accommodates groups of up to 50 for receptions, 40 for banquets and 20 for meetings.
- 300-square foot meeting suite accommodates up to 10 guests.
